THE EST. D 1853 TRIBUNE
Spring Edition

Melbourne, AUSTRALIA

THIS SPRING AT THE DUKE

Built in 1850 and licensed in 1853, our rich and fascinating history spans more than 160 years. The hotel was named after Field Marshal Arthur Wellesley (aka the Duke of Wellington). Wellesley famously led the British forces to defeat Napoleon in the Battle of Waterloo in 1815 and went on to become British Prime Minister in 1828. The Duke has had many colourful licensees, including the late football hero Brian 'the whale' Roberts. The saying 'have an ale with the Whale' resonates strongly with the many pieces of history that have contributed to The Duke's iconic reputation.
