

FAMOUS MELBOURNE LADIES

Our signature spritzes take their titles from some of Melbourne's famous ladies!

Annette Kellerman (1886-1975)

Annette was a professional swimmer, vaudeville and film star, and writer. She was one of the first women to wear a one-piece bathing costume, instead of the then accepted pantaloons, and inspired others to follow her example.

Vida Goldstein (1869-1949)

Vida was a feminist politician who campaigned for women's suffrage and social reform.

Henrietta Dugdale (1827-1918)

Henrietta initiated the first female suffrage society in Australasia. Her campaigning resulted in breakthroughs for women's rights in Australia.

Dame Nellie Melba (1861-1931)

Born Helen Porter Mitchell, Dame Nellie was an Australian operatic soprano. She became one of the most famous singers of the late Victorian era and the early 20th century, and was the first Australian to achieve international recognition as a classical musician. She took the pseudonym "Melba" from Melbourne, her home town.
